Comments

- * Mandatory fields
- 1. The applicant states his profession (i.e. attorney-at-law or notary public), the Association where he is enrolled and his registry number.
- 2. The applicant states the legal order forming the basis of his request (e.g. Greek law). In case of requests involving multiple legal orders, they must all be stated clearly.
- 3. The applicant is required to formulate his request with clarity and precision. Multiple questions should be numbered. The Institute will not reply to questions that are not adequately specified.
Should the reserved space be not enough, the application form may be extended on a separate sheet of paper and signed by the applicant.
- 4. The applicant is advised to attach any material that may prove useful to the Institute staff in the course of research and preparation of the requested legal information, such as a court judgment or other order, foreign documents or documents from the case file, etc.

The request and any accompanying documents may be submitted by post or facsimile, sent as attachments by means of an e-mail message (the subject should indicate 'application for the supply of legal information') or be directly made at the Secretariat daily between 09:00 and 14:30.

In case of any problems or need for clarifications, you are kindly requested to contact the Secretariat.
